

Toni Casala

Business Development

University of Colorado Boulder

Biography

Toni Casala is a partner at our GAVARI Studio Architekten office in Los Angeles and is responsible for client management. Her career began in 1987 in Hollywood, where she founded Casala, Ltd., advising major companies such as The Walt Disney Company and Warner Brothers. Toni brings extensive experience from the film industry and leading expertise in California child labor law. Additionally, she served as Associate Producer of the film "Baggage" and as Producer for McLefty Productions and the "Uncle Moondog" series of animated short films. Her entrepreneurial spirit and diverse experiences enrich our team at GAVARI Studio Architekten.