

Bahram Kalhornia

Artistic Director

Bahram Kalhornia is a designer, sculptor, graphic designer, painter, researcher, and educator in the field of art.

Biography

Bahram Kalhornia joined GAVARI Studio Architekten as the Artistic Director in 2024, assuming creative leadership and design for our projects. With a background in art and extensive experience collaborating with international organizations such as UNESCO and UNICEF, he has developed an innovative vision for designing cultural spaces. His particular focus is on creating museum experiences that are both aesthetically impressive and intellectually profound. Kalhornia is recognized as a pioneer in merging art and architecture, setting new standards for the design of cultural institutions through his creative approaches. Many of his groundbreaking concepts have been integrated into our recent projects, offering visitors a remarkable and sustainable artistic experience.